FALL CONFERENCE | TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2019 | 8:30AM-1:30PM
MONTCLAIR STATE UNIVERSITY | STUDENT CENTER, 4TH FLOOR CONFERENCE ROOM

1. PROFESSIONALISM IN YOUR CLASSROOM
   Lessons and Exercises from the Professional Entertainment Landscape

   Learn game-based activities to teach the standards and procedures that reflect today's current professional entertainment landscape to your students. These exercises and templates will help you expose your students to the various artistic job types. This workshop is participatory- come ready to play!

   Presented by Colleen Finnegan Kahl

2. FROM STUDENT TO STAR
   Making the Leap into Professional Auditions

   Have students who are ready to go to the next level? Support their talents and ambitions from the confines of your classroom, and help your students transition into the competitive professional audition scene by learning the skills and resources presented in this business-based lecture. These tools will instill confidence and prepare them to showcase their personal capabilities and powerfully represent your program.

   Presented by Colleen Finnegan Kahl

Colleen Finnegan Kahl is an experienced theatre arts educator, entrepreneur, consultant and community engagement leader. Post degree, Colleen grew a well-rounded theatrical skillset working as a professional actress, stage manager, producer and educator in both the NYC and regional theatrical markets.

In recent years, Colleen has built theatrical and creative arts programming for 15+ schools and community organizations. In 2017, her company, Enspirited Projects, was nominated as a top 3 innovative company for work in Arts Education and self-esteem along the Jersey Shore. Earlier this year, she was honored as a nominee for the Russ Berrie Making A Difference Award at Ramapo College for her direct impact on aspiring performers.

Alongside her theatrical endeavors, Colleen developed a patented jewelry product, launched a greeting card line, consulted on emerging Arts Districts, organized the development of a creative teen center and is currently assistance on an emerging new nutraceuticals company based in Florida.

As of January, she was named to the board of the National Consortium for Creative Placemaking, a non-profit that believes creative placemaking can make sustainable, prosperous, equitable, inclusive, and resilient places.
